LE BEAU PAYS DE FRANCE

By Josette Eugenie Spink

This new French reader for elementary classes offers a wealth of geographical and historical material, legends of old France, and stories of the new, besides two little plays and a goodly number of French songs. It is well equipped with notes, questionnaires, exercises, and a complete vocabulary. The illustrations, by Sears Gallagher, reflect the spirit of the book and give it an added distinction.

FRENCH BOOKS RECENTLY ADDED TO THE INTERNATIONAL MODERN LANGUAGE SERIES

Une Tache d'Encre by Rene Bazin

This interesting and amusing love story delightfully told in the first person provides an excellent means of aiding the work in French conversation.

Histoire d'un Conscriit de 1813 by Erckmann-Chatrian

A charming historical romance, particularly depicting the life in Alsace, affords an interesting account of one of Napoleon's great campaigns, and may be used for second-year or third-year French courses.

Un Mariage d'Amour by Ludovic Halevy. (New Edition with Exercises)

The irresistible appeal of this simple love story, the adequacy of the Notes, and the abundance of exercises based upon the text furnish attractive material for the first-year French class.

La Mare au Diable by George Sand. (New Edition with Exercises)

This ideal picture of French peasant life, touched with humor as well as pathos amply supplemented by Notes and Vocabulary, makes available for second-year French a valuable course in idiomatic translation.
